Rivero, Gordimer & Company Announces New Shareholder

TAMPA, Fla. (December 17, 2021)—Rivero, Gordimer & Company (RGCO), CPAs and Advisors, is pleased to announce the promotion of Ms. Julie A. Davis, CPA, to Shareholder. In her new role, Ms. Davis will help RGCO continue to better serve their clients as well as the whole Tampa Bay community.

New Shareholder Davis said, “I am honored to become a Shareholder and work alongside a great team here at RGCO. I look forward to continuing the legacies created before me of being trusted advisors to our clients while developing future generations of CPAs. Current and past shareholders have created an environment that fosters a reputation of providing trustworthy services to our clients while taking care of our staff at the same time. I am honored to be chosen to continue to carry this reputation and legacy forward.”

Managing shareholder Mr. Herman V. Lazzara, CPA, said, “Julie has been a tremendous asset to our team since joining the firm in 2018. Her experience, knowledge, and leadership in our government and nonprofit niche has led to significant growth in that industry sector over the last four years. In addition, Julie serves in a leadership role in staff development and firm recruiting and we’re very pleased to add her to the shareholder group.”
